

AZED CROSSWORD 2755

DRAUGHT-HOUSE

1 D. F. Manley: Urine had to gush out – in this? (comp. anag. & lit.)

2 A. Plumb: Herod's a thug, grotesquely bringing in head of unfortunate John in the Bible (u in anag.; ref. J. the Baptist).

3 Dr S. J. Shaw: A shed or hut designed to accommodate number twos in Tudor age (anag. incl. second letters, & lit.).

VHC

T. Anderson: Foul shed with a trough for all to go in? (U in anag. & lit.).

M. Barley: Shed with a trough, possibly for everyone to go in (U in anag. & lit.).

Dr J. Burscough: Possibly shed with a trough – urinal, primarily (anag. incl. u, & lit.).

C. A. Clarke: Strain after movement here (draught + house, & lit.; strain<sup>2</sup>).

C. M. Edmunds: Fidgety through wanting a pee, paused here? (anag. less p, & lit.).

Dr I. S. Fletcher: A shed, bursting with endless urge, you once entered here (thou in anag. less e, & lit.).

J. Grimes: Waste shed with universal trough one goes in? (a in anag. incl. U, & lit.).

R. J. Heald: Front of heterosexuality, a defensive posture taken up by men in the closet (h guard (rev.) + ous in the; see ou<sup>2</sup>).

J. Kitchen: Remarkably, Hotel used a trough as a privy (anag. incl. h).

L. F. Marzillier (USA): Place to go to shelter against the wind (draught + house).

Rev. Prebendary M. R. Metcalf: Can the USA get sorted with our Donald holding grudges at the start? (anag. incl. first letters).

T. J. Moorey: This WC flushed, was crude though (comp. anag. & lit.).

S. J. O'Boyle: Where to go to use hard drug with a heroin junky? (anag. incl. H, H; junky, 2 meanings).

J. & A. Price: Vigorous outgush heard here? (anag. & lit.).

D. Price Jones: Can real ale keep? (draught + house).

N. Roper: Lord! Runs! Anything to resort to outside house? Privy needed! (D + R + ho. in aught use).

A. J. Shields: Shed with a trough possibly containing a drop of urine (u in anag., & lit.).

I. Simpson: A hut or shed getting used primarily when bursting? (anag. incl. first letters, & lit.).

P. A. Stephenson: Outgush heard swirling here? (anag. & lit.).

R. C. Teuton: Must do number ones and twos in this aged hut? Sure (anag. incl. first two letters, & lit.).

Mrs A. M. Walden: Wherein you might find huge old turd has decomposed (anag. incl. O, & lit.).

R. J. Whale: Used through a need to go potty? (anag. & lit.; 2 meanings of 'go potty').

HC

P. B. Alldred, M. Barker, J. G. Booth, T. C. Borland, C. J. Brougham, Ms C. Carstairs, T. Clement, M. Coates, W. J. Dady, M. Davies, Ms L. Davis, E. Dawid, W. Drever, Ms R. Gamsa, G. I. L. Grafton, L. M. Inman, H. Jenkins, G. Johnstone, D. R. Jones, J. Koprowski, J. C. Leyland, M. Lloyd-Jones, B. Lovering, M. Lunan, Dr R. A. Main, P. W. Marlow, P. McKenna, J. R. C. Michie, K. Milan, C. G. Millin, C. Ogilvie, D. J. R. Ogilvie (USA), B. Pasupathy, Ms I. Reid, A. Robe, L. Ward (USA).

Comments

128 entries, almost no mistakes that I spotted. The clue word inevitably resulted in a plethora of lavatorial ideas, many of them being very similar in wording, which made judging quite difficult. Favourite clue of the month (of 12 voted for) was 'Dram suggests this dish' for PIN-UP. My clue to BRUNEIAN was criticized for its use of 'Malay', since the country of Brunei was never part of Malay or Malaysia, but rather 'an enclave in Sarawak under British protection'. Brunei, I was told, is actually not part of Sarawak. It is in two sections on the coast, separated by a river.

No more for now, as the party celebrating Azed No. 2750 is fast approaching. For those of you unable to be there in person on Saturday 3rd May, Dave Tilley has kindly volunteered to stream the event on Zoom. Viewers should be able to tune in to see the guest speakers (and myself) from around 15:45 using the following link:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/6528014392?pwd=aTF4ZnY1R0RsNkp3NmFocjltOSttQT09&omn=82029835893>

Meeting ID: 652 801 4392

Passcode: 9673